

SOCIAL WORK

Are you ready to lead with confidence? Let's go all in together.

Whether you're working on public policy, community projects, or mental health counseling, your Social Work degree will be the start of a richly rewarding career.

Learn to practice social work with integrity, embrace diversity, and apply evidence-based practice. Champion social justice and ignite political change. Engage in impactful community projects, social relations, and research.

WHY ROBERTS?

Graduate in as few as three years

Be considered for dual acceptance into our Master's of Social Work program

Build your skills and confidence through research and internship opportunities

HANDS-ON LEARNING

Get real-world experience on our annual Legislative Trip to Washington D.C., the heart of our nation. Spend a semester researching a social policy you're passionate about, then present your case to Congress.

You'll also learn crisis intervention skills in the Emergency Room Trauma Simulation Lab. Collaborate with Criminal Justice and Nursing students to assess and care for simulated patients. Be prepared to handle a variety of scenarios and work with interdisciplinary teams.

SOCIAL WORK

APPLY FOR FREE

SOCIAL WORK is the number one degree sought after by mental health, healthcare, and other human service agencies. At Roberts, you'll become a competent generalist social worker, ready to jump into the field or graduate school.

You'll be taught how to embrace the dignity and worth of each individual. As Roberts is rooted in historical Christianity, we welcome all spiritual backgrounds and teach you spiritual integration and spiritually-sensitive social work practice. Get hands-on practice in the classroom, partner agencies (internships), and on Capitol Hill.

If you're interested in becoming a licensed mental health counselor, earning your bachelor's degree in Social Work is one of the quickest and most affordable paths forward.

YOU'LL STUDY:

- Human behavior
- A variety of populations, such as individuals, families, and groups
- Spirituality and social work practice
- Social policy and community practice
- Social welfare history and research methods

STORIES LEADING THE WAY

Alyssa and Ben Matz both graduated from this program in 2020. They stayed at Roberts for their Master's of Social Work and graduated in 2022.

Alyssa is the Coordinator of Congregational Care and Family Ministry at Browncroft Community Church. Her husband, Ben, works as a school social worker at Neil Armstrong Elementary School. They met and fell in love at Roberts.

Alyssa says, "If you have a passion for serving others, advocating for all people, or a hunger for social justice- no matter what those things may look like, social work is for you. Both the Roberts Bachelor's of Social Work and Master's of Social Work programs set students up for success on whatever path they decide to take."