

School of Nursing:

Graduate Program Student Outcomes

Each year, faculty evaluate the student outcomes of each program. This includes:

- Program Completion Rates
 - Benchmark >70%
 - Actual 2020-21: 90%
- Certification Pass Rates – > 80%
 - Not applicable
- Employment Rates of Graduates
 - Benchmark > 70%
 - Actual 2020-21: 100% of students employed
- Student Satisfaction with the overall learning as exhibited in course evaluations and survey completed at graduation via a national benchmarking survey
 - Benchmark: ≥5.5 on a 7.0 scale
 - Actual 2020-21: 6.5
- Student attainment of Program Outcomes through evaluation of assignments: Met
- Student Satisfaction with Support Services (ITS, Learning Center and Library)
 - Benchmark: ≥5.5 on a 7.0 scale
 - Actual 2020-2021: Met

Student Outcomes for Traditional Undergraduate Nursing Program

Each year, faculty evaluate the student outcomes of each program. This includes:

- Licensure Pass Rate
 - First Time Pass Rate – Benchmark - >80% Actual 2021: 85%
 - > 90% of students will pass the NCLEX within 6 months of degree conferral.
 - Actual 2021: 97.5%
- Program Completion Rates
 - Benchmark >70% will complete the program in 2.5 years from the second semester of the sophomore year
 - 2021-2022: Actual 95%
- Employment Rates of Graduates
 - Benchmark > 70%
 - 2021-2022: Actual 100% of students who reported (90% total graduates)
- Student Satisfaction with the overall learning as exhibited in course evaluations and survey completed at graduation via a national benchmarking survey
 - Benchmark > 5.5 on Scale of 1-7
 - Actual 2020-2021: 6.26/7.0
- Student attainment of Program Outcomes through evaluation of assignments - Met
- Student Satisfaction with Support Services (ITS, Learning Center and Library) through national benchmarking survey
 - Benchmark >5.5 on Scale of 1-7

- 2020-2021- Met

Student Outcomes for RN to BS Degree Completion Program

- Program Completion Rates
 - Benchmark >70% will complete the program in 2.5 years from the second semester of the sophomore year
 - Actual 2020-2021: 95%
- Employment Rates of Graduates
 - Benchmark > 70%
 - Actual 2020-2021: 100% of students who reported (90% total)
- Student Satisfaction with the overall learning as exhibited in course evaluations and survey completed at graduation via a national benchmarking survey
 - Benchmark > 5.5 on Scale of 1-7
 - Actual 2020-2021: 6.26/7.0
- Student attainment of Program Outcomes through evaluation of assignments - Met
- Student Satisfaction with Support Services (ITS, Learning Center and Library) through national benchmarking survey
 - Benchmark >5.5 on Scale of 1-7
 - 2020-2021- Met

Faculty Outcomes

Aggregate faculty outcomes are evaluated annually. The Roberts faculty are committed to excellence in teaching and participate in service, lifelong learning opportunities and scholarly activities including publication and presentations at local, national and international conferences.